UNM Staff Remote Work Agreement

This form used for a new RWA or to change a current RWA

Purpose: In accordance with University Administrative Policy (UAP) 3245: Remote Work, the following constitutes an agreement of the terms and conditions of in-state remote work, out-of-state remote work, and hybrid remote work. This agreement specifies the conditions applicable to an arrangement for performing work at an alternate work location, on a regular basis.

This agreement is subject to the approval process, requirements, and limitations set forth in UAP 3245. College or Division leadership may develop and communicate standards for equitable implementation across departments to maintain business continuity. This agreement may be subject to modification or termination per the conditions set forth in UAP 3245.

EMPLOYEE ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

Employees working remotely in a state other than New Mexico are responsible for verifying that their worksite address is accurately reflected in UNM's Banner system via UNM Demographic Self Service (https://dss.unm.edu).

Any change in an approved work location requires supervisor approval and may require a new RWA. Employees working out-of-state who change addresses must submit an updated RWA for approval PRIOR TO commencing work at the new work location.

I understand that:
- I must have a designated space at my alternative work location and will maintain a secure work environment.
- If I separate my employment from the University of New Mexico, then I agree to return University property no later than ten (10) business days from the date of my separation.
- All obligations, responsibilities, terms, and conditions of employment with the University remain unchanged, except those obligations and responsibilities specifically addressed in this agreement.

I hereby affirm by my signature that I will adhere to the requirement of UAP 3245: Remote Work and I understand that noncompliance could result in disciplinary action subject to UAP 3215: Performance Improvement. Should my situation change, I will consult with my supervisor.
